CHOATE ON WEBSTER,—In his lecture on The Times of National Revolutions as affcting deliberative elequence," Mr. Choate thus speaks of Daniel Webster, as quoted rom the report in the Boston Post: "And now, said Mr. Choate, in conclusion on a review of this series of the most elo-

ment of men, and these circumstances of their times, does an exceeding love deceive us, or have we not outselves seen and folus, or have we not ourselves seen and followed mourning to the grave one man who, east upon times so troubled and so high, would have enacted a part of equal splend, rand won a fame as historical—our own Webster? [Loud applause.] Was there ever n cause to be pleaded before an assembly on earth to which he would not have proved himself more than equal? Consider that he was cast on a great quiet, civil er that he was cast on a great quiet, civil age : on an age and land ma ked by law, order, cententment, healthful progress, by in-tellectual growth and be utiful, material prosperity, resting on a deep and stable free-dom. We saw that great ocean, Daniel dom. We saw that great ocean, Daniel Webster, when in its calm: but how if a strong norther had blown over it, or a hurricane of the tropics had stirred its unsounded depths. That mighty reason, that freedom, that sovering brow and eye, that fountain of eloquent feeling, passion and imagination, which seems to me never to have been completely comprehended earth, fathomics as a sea, and like that, demanding the breaking up of the monsoon or the attraction of those great heavenly bodies, the lights of the world, to raise them fully and adequately, to what in-umples of eloquence man ever witness d, umpus of cooperate man ever writess at, were these mighty faculties unequal?—
[Applause.] Assisted by that unrivalled orgar, the Greek language of Demostheres, would be rot have rolled an equal thunder and Hashest an equal finus ? Would be not have breathed virtue into decaying Greece, and turned back for a time the incvitable hour? And when the pillars of Roman liberty were shaken, would not their last areat champion have welcomed him as an ally worthy o h: cause? And was he not the man to stand by Adams, and second the motion which has made its illustrious mover immortal among men? The rights of the colonies, the violation of those rights the lawer rights of nun, and the violation of the rights of national life,—would be not have stated those views as with the clearness of a sunbeam,—transparent, definite, exact? When reason was convinced, the conscience instructed, would be not have swept, with all commanding power, the grander passions of grief, indignation, self-sacrifice, and the love of country;—and then, as the vision of the independence of Ameriag limered through the future, would be not, with a soul as triumphant, a tongin as confident, and a heart of prophecy as sure, as on a later feative day be did on the rock of the pilgrims, bid distant generations. "Hail, and come?" [Enthusiastic applause.]

NOTICE.

Some persons whose names stand in the business directory on the first page of our paper, have not been seen by our Agent in reference to the matter.

Should any such, wish their names withdrawn they will please inform us in three days from date; otherwise they will be continued at $2, per year.

The "Mciville Estate" long known as the "Verandah" was purchased a few days ago by Newton Brothers, and Anthony Stewart Esq. There were 2415 feet of land, and the price was $2800 or about $1-15 per foot. Considering that the property is entirely off Thames Street, the price indi cates that real estate in the compact part of the city is still on the rise. The last sale of favorably located property on the street was at $2,19 per foot. Newton Bros. will remove the Verandah, and repair, alter, and paint the building, somewhat in keeping with their present establishment. We hope they will eventually build of brick. We hail all these improvements with great pleasure, and regard them as the carnest of that not far distant day when in Newport, enterprizes of this kind will be found to pay.

LECTURE THIS EVENING.-Let no one who wishes to hear the most eloquent lecture of the season fail of hearing Rev. Dr. Chapin this evening upon "Franklin" at Aquidneck Hall at seven o'clock.

The popularity of this lecture was such that Mr. Chapin was invited to repeat it last Monday evening before the Mechanic Apprentices' Library Association of Boston. We quote a few paragraphs from the Boston Journal of yesterday respecting Mr. Chapin a reception there.

DR. CHAPIN'S LECTURE ON "FRANKLIN."
The concluding lecture of the course before the Mechanic Apprentices' Library A ation was delivered last night in the mont Temple by Hev. Dr. Chapin of York. The subject was "Benjamin Fun - lin," and the popularity of the lecturer as well as that of his theme—which, it will be remembered by thousands of gratified listeners at the time, furnished the groundwork of his remarks before the same association on the occasion of the Franklin celebration, on the 17th of September last-drew to-gether an audience which filled almost every scat in the capacious hall. On this occa-sion the lecture was revised so as to relieve it of the special application it had to the circumstance under which it was then de-

The series of great events of which Frank-lin's life was compo el were related in details showing that, i. everything, an indomitable honesty, and firm judgment constituted the man, and a pure and faithful pur, ose and deep seated love of liberty the patriot.

Franklin, as a practical man, was next alluded to, and analyzed not by the test of the higher standards of genius, but by what he really was. He saw certain features of fact truly, and used them for practical good, leaving such as were misty to his understanding; and it was worthy of remark in this instance, that after all, it was a practical. Poor Richard principle that inaugurated the American Revolution; it was simply the result of a determination that the people of the this country would not pay a penny for what they did not want.

The Rev. James C. Richmond has been lecturing in the Western country with greatsuccess during the present winter; he has recieved, and probably will accept, a call to the Rectorship of St. Paul's Church, Chillicothe, Ohio.

We notice that workmen commenced the removal of the "Sweet House," yesterday, preparatory to the creetion of the new block corner of Thames and Church streets

We learn that H. P. Duncan Esq., of Scotland, a relative of the senior partner of Danking house of Duncan Sherman &: Co., has taken a cottage here for the approaching summer.

The auditor in his Report made to the Gen eral Assembly on the 14th inst., says that the Providence Light In autay is the only military Company which has rendered any active, efficient, service to the State since the Revolution.3

Evidently, the Auditor is not very familiar with the history of the Newport Artillery,' or else he wished to detract from the merits which are due to the Company for services rendered during the war of 1812 and during the insurrection in 1842.

A petition or an act to incorporate the Newport and Bristol Rail Road Company has been presented to the Legislature, now in session, which will no doubt be granted at the June session.

It has been suggested by a number of persons, favorable to making the Road, that the City of Newport in its Corporate Capacity should issue its lionds, or become responsi ble in some other manner, to the extent o $50,000, towards building the Road, and that in order to ascertain the sentiments of the Citizens in relation to such a measu c the question should be voted upon at the con.ing Election in April.

woman c whided a schoolmaster named William Martin, at Greenslung, P. last week, for I ratally Leating her son with a knotted club.

The Cottage belonging to Charles H. Russell, on Narragunsett Avenue, near his Villa, was vesterday sold for $5500 to Miss Gray of Baltimore. The price is a fair one for both seller and purchaser, and indicates a rise in real estate to a moderate extent. Villa sites continue in demand . and though we shall never again witness the extraordinary operations of the last five years, yet there is every indication that Newport will more and more concentrate within herself, that class of retired merchants, literary men, and artists, who have for years past been seeking seclusion, restand health within her borders.

CHINA.—A letter from the Chinese Sea dated Dec. 16, and published in the French "Moniteur of the fleet," gives some new de-tails of the late affair at Canton, showing that the damage sustained by the foreign merchants was not so great as first stated.

The Chinese town suffered horribly as well hy the fire from the English ships as by the native robbers. Of the twelve great factories belonging to the Hong merchants near the Tartar town, nine were destroyed by the first attack. A great number of merchants had emigrated to Shanghae, but the 500,000 inhabitants of Canton cannot so easily dispose WASHINGTON, Feb. 23. The President has approved the coinage ill. Recent events in Persia having occurid the attention of the admini tration, a tormal application has been sent to Congress for an appropriation of $2,000 tor the pay of an envoy extraordinary to that country, and for nearly $5,000 for his secretary and interpreter. CELEBRATING A MARRIAGE BY KILLING a Dutchman on two.-In Jamaica, Long Island, an Irishman, known as Red Mike, was arrested on Saturday night last, on a charge of stabbing two men while in a drunken affray, one of them being injured so seriously that it is thought he will not recov-er. Red Mike was celebrating the event of his marriage, which took place the night of his marriage, which took place the hight previous, and having becoming well charged with lighting rum, declared that he would kill a Dutchman or two. He accordingly entered some buildings known as Rotten row, and attacked a German, and in attempling to stab him, inflicted a ,wound the hand of one of his own friends. He then rushed into another apartment and made a similar attack upon another German, when one of his frier : again inte vent blood shed, and in the melee he ceived a stab in the temple, which it is thought, will prove fatal. Red Mike was then arrested, and committed to await the result of the injuries .- Boston Times.

A RAD NIGHT.--A gentleman was once dining with a friend, when a most dreadful storm arose. In hopes of its abatement the entertaiment was prolonged to the latest possible hour; but at length it was over, and the storm showed no signs of ceasing, but on the contrary, grew worse and worse. The host insisted upon his guest's acceptance of a lodging for the night, in view of the impossibility of reaching his home. The guest complied, but in a few minutes was missed from the parlor. In half an hour hejceappeared, drenched with rain. "Where in heaven's name, have you been?" rske the bost, viewing the singular object, which looked like a dog about the paws, and a weeping-willow about the head.—"I." said he, quietly sinking off the water—"I have been at home to tell my wife that, as it was such a bad night, I should not return."

SHOOTING APPRAY-THREE MEX SHOP with one Ball.—On Thursday, about 3 o'clock, P. M., a difficulty took place on Garcison avenue, in this city, between some o the soldiers occupying the Fort near this place, which led to shooting; one soldier named Willoughby shot another named Leonard, the ball entering below the right breast, passing through the firshy part and coming out behind, grazing the knee of a third and finally ledged in the calf of the leg of a four h soldier, where it is as we write this. A BOLD DEED.-Last evening, about half-A DOLD DEED.—Last evening, about hal-past six, as a respectable young lady was walking at the corner of High and Church streets, a man suddenly selzed her and threw on the sidewalk and snatched at the witch she wore. The chain broke, and he carried off only a gold locket containing a miniature and part of the gold chain. Her erreums obliged him to run off up High creet.—Hartford Caurant, Friday.

DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

Brooklyn, Conn., June 15, 1851.

Friend Davis:—Although a stranger to you, I take the liberty of addressing a few lines to you, for the purpose of saving a few words in favor of your ravaluable medicine. I have used your Pain Killer for a number of years, and for bowde complaint and hurns, and in fact for pains of all kinds, I think it pre-eminent.—
Before I became acquainted with your medicine, I had a viclent attack of dysentery, which reduced me very low, in fact my friends flought I could not survive, but by the treatment of a Betanic Physician, the best remedy I then knew, I recovered. Since then, I have had several attacks, one very violent, about four years ago. I was uttacked at 3 three o'clock in the morning, and at sunrise, I was not able to get off my bed, I sent and got a twenty-five cent buttle of your. Pain Killer, which I canamenced taking, according to directions, and at six o'clock in the evening my bowds were regular, and I was up and moving about, although somewhat weak. I would recommend to all similarily afflicted, to avail themselves of your invaluable medicine.

I am six, yours respectfully.

The genuine Perry Davis' Pain Killer is now put up in name! bottles, with the words

The genunine Perry Davis' Pain Killer is now put up in pannel bottles, with the words Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer is glass; and with two steel engraved labels on each bottle—one an excellent likeness of Perry Davis, the original inventor of the medicine, the other a sicel engraved 1 of 6 hand—name others can be relied upon as genuine. The advantage proposed by this ventilator over all others is, it gives a uniform draft to a chimney, and at the same time excludes water thus doing away with two great evils—a back draft and drippings down the chimney. The arrangement of the ventilator is very simple; it can be easily adjusted to any use for which it may be required, and it is not liable to get out of order.

A REMEDY which CURES IN FIVE MINUTES.—M. LEROUX'S French Cholera Cogne Bitters. This truly wonderful scientific compound is recommended by the most eminent and tearned physicians of all Europe and America, and enjoys the best reputation of anything similar, ever offered. It is without doubt, the best most efficient and generally acknowledged remedy against cholera, dysentery, diardhows, and complaints of the stomach in general. The numerous patients who have tred it necerding to directions have invariably found relief in a very short time, and the best proof of it is, that since this standard renowly was introduced in the armies of the Allies in the Crimen, the mortality of the soldiers from cholera and similar diseases was diminished by over 75 per cent.; in consideration of which, the inventor was presented by the French and English governments with a gold medal, bearing the inscription, "Hail! M. Leroux, the great chemist and inventor, by whose knowledge our armies are preserved from cholera."

To the young, who so much admire the heartful locks and ringlet, he feels that he will be pardoned if he offers the advice suggested by long study and extensive observation. It is to discard all cologue and stimulating oils for the hair, and keep always upon the toilet a bottle of the Restorative for occasional use and w: can safely predict, that henceforth silver locks will be upon built heads. Prof. Wood—Dear Sir—Having become prematurely quite gray, I was induced some 6 weeks since, to make a trial of your Hair Restorative. I have used less than two bottles, but the gray hairs have disappeared; and although my hair has not fully attained its original color, yet the change is gradually going an, and I have great, hopes that in a short time my hair will be us'dark as formerly. I have also been much gratified at the healthy moisture and vigor of the hair, which, before was harsh and dry, and it has censed to come out as formerly.

Prof. O. J. Wood-Dear Sir—I take pleasure in heading voluntary testimony to the magic effects of your wonderful Hair Restor ative. As far back as 1856 my hair commensed falling off until the top of my scalp became hald and smooth as glass, and it has continued to fall off for a great many years, notwithed faining out that the top of my scale, became to hald and smooth as glass, and it has continued to fall off for a great many years, notwithstanding I have used many celebrated preparations for its restoration. Seeing your advertisement I was induced to give your article a trial, and to my atter astonishment I found after a few applications that my hair became firmly set and assured by very glossy and beautiful appearance; and at the time I had used a quart bottle, my hald head was covered over with a young and vigorous growth of hair, which is now from one to two inches in length, and growing very fast.

Yours, truly,
HENRY GJODRICH.
